QUAKER CITY LADIES' MOTOR CLUB ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Richard Y. Filbert, President, Gave Old-Fashioned Affair, During Which Mrs. Martin Was Presented With Loving Cup—Other Affairs

HILTON, the residence of Mrs. Richard Y. Filbert, at Fox Chase, was the scene of a gay gathering Tuesday, when Mrs. Filbert entertained at luncheon and bridge the members of the Quaker City Ladies' Motor Club, of which she is president. The invitations read: "An Old-fashioned Luncheon," and the decorations of autumn leaves and flowers conformed to the idea.

A success in every particular was the annual vaudeville entertainment and dance of the dramatic organization of the Madonnas Club, 814 South 18th street, on last Friday evening, in the Lyric Hall, 223 South 6th street, taxing the hall to its capacity, and a large number of late arrivals were obliged to stand, despite the inclement weather.

The fact that Mr. William A. S. Lapetina was chairman of the Entertainment Committee and general director of the performance insured its success from the start. Mr. Lapetina was the first promoter of the organization and has its welfare at heart. He presided over a splendid program, including three playlets. The feature of the program was "Fun in the Bowery Schoolroom," introducing Mr. Joseph A. Lombardi, the club's secretary, as Professor Dumb, who scored a decided hit.

"Dawn," a one-act drama of the Western coal mines, in which appeared the woman and the child, was superbly acted by Miss Dionardo and her supporting cast, headed by Mr. William Crockett.

Following these playlets Miss Elizabeth Woerts, soprano, scored a decided hit in her vocal operatic selections, "Mis Al Tardio stella divina" (Dolls in Mis-cher), by Verdi, and "Lolita" (Spanish serenade), by A. Buzzi Pencia. The Madonnas Club, under the direction of Mr. Joseph De Luca, rendered delightful selections. The following members that did justice to their respective roles were Mr. Frank Massey, Mr. Philip Pellegrini, Mr. Augustus Weber, Mr. Roscoe Loyola, Mr. Frank D'Amico, Mr. Anthony Bera, Mr. Frank Calabrese, Mr. Frank Malone, Mr. Henry A. Martin, Mr. William A. S. Lapetina, Mr. Frank Sideris, Mr. Frank Sideris, Mr. William J. A. Morris and Mr. Victor J. Peola.

Mr. Salvatore Ricciardi, stage manager, surprised the audience with novel electrical effects. Mr. Nicholas Marasco superintended the properties. The committee in charge of the mammoth affair was made up of Mr. George H. Bonner, the club's director; Mr. Nicholas Marasco, Mr. Anthony Maglietta, Mr. Salvatore Ricciardi, Mr. Joseph A. Lombardi, chairman, and Mr. Leonard Gabriel, secretary.

A very enjoyable embroidery class that resumes meetings this fall met for the first time this season last night at the home of Mrs. William A. Thompson, 311 South 17th street. A buffet supper followed the meeting. Those present were Miss Emma Montgomery, Miss Montgomery, Miss Mary Mulrenan, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Joseph Wilson and Miss Anna Wilson.
